

Onslow County Public Library

Main Library Quiet Study Room Procedures

- The Quiet Study Room is only available to Onslow County Public Library (OCPL) patrons. A valid OCPL card number is required to reserve and use the room.
- The room is available free of charge on a first-come, first served basis during normal Library hours.
- Library programs and events have priority over all other room reservation requests. The Library reserves the right to reschedule any patron or group to meet its own requirements for priority programs and activities.
- The room can be reserved by each patron for a maximum of two hours per week.
- Requestors are limited to no more than three consecutive meetings (weeks, months, etc.) as such requests constitute standing meetings, which are not allowed by our Meeting Room Policy.
- Reservation requests may be made up to three months in advance by calling the Library or visiting the Library website.
